ISBN : #0819572764 | Date : 2012-08-15

Description :

PDF-c66f5 | This groundbreaking, transgenre work—part detective story, part literary memoir, part imagined past—is intensely autobiographical and confessional. Proceeding sentence by sentence, city by city, and backwards in time, poet and essayist Kazim Ali details the struggle of coming of age between cultures, overcoming personal and family strictures to talk about private affairs and secrets long held.... Bright Felon: Autobiography and Cities (Wesleyan Poetry Series)
