Description :

PDF-597f5 | From the uncensored and unedited voices of Baltimore's youth: we have stories to tell. This book is filled with poems, personal narratives, and essays about racism, discrimination, corruption, and violence in urban education and our distrust in the system that is supposed to be supporting us. Read about the structural doors that need unlocking, keys to problems that need fixing, and our poetic r... Broken Keys Don't Unlock Doors: Urban Education from the Voices of the Youth
