Description :

PDF-b5e27 | Trenchant, expansive essays on the cultural consequences of ongoing, all-permeating technological innovation. In 1994, Sven Birkerts published The Gutenberg Elegies, his celebrated rallying cry to resist the oncoming digital advances, especially those that might affect the way we read literature and experience art—the very cultural activities that make us human. After two decades of rampant change... Changing the Subject: Art and Attention in the Internet Age
