Description :

PDF-95c19 | To receive a royal pardon in sixteenth-century France for certain kinds of homicide?unpremeditated, unintended, in self-defense, or otherwise excusable?a supplicant had to tell the king a story. These stories took the form of letters of remission, documents narrated to royal notaries by admitted offenders who, in effect, stated their case for pardon to the king. Thousands of such stories are f... Fiction in the Archives: Pardon Tales and Their Tellers in Sixteenth-Century France
