Description :

PDF-d2e2a | When Professor Clarence Nero and his teaching colleagues walked into their classrooms for the first time after the tumultuous summer of 2016—a summer that in Baton Rouge had seen the murders of Alton Sterling and innocent police officers as well as a vast and historic flood—they had no idea what to expect from students. This wasn't any ordinary semester at Baton Rouge Community College. Many... Voices from the Bayou: Baton Rouge Students Confront Racism, Police Brutality, and a Historic Flood
